

PURPOSE

This policy will provide a clear set of guidelines and procedures to ensure:

- the safe and appropriate use of social media within Highvale Preschool
- the safe and appropriate use of photographs, and videos within Highvale Preschool

VALUES

Highvale Preschool has a moral and legal responsibility to ensure that all children are safe whilst in their care. The use of social media and photographs is used widely within the community and Highvale Preschool recognises that, at times, these may be a detrimental to the safety of children and their families. Therefore, Highvale Preschool is committed to:

- maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of children attending Highvale Preschool, and the families of children who attend.
- ensuring the online safety of children and families of children who attend Highvale Preschool

SCOPE

This policy applies to the Approved Provider, Nominated Supervisor, Centre Supervisors, educators, staff, students on placement, volunteers, parents/guardians, children and others attending the programs and activities of Highvale Preschool, including during offsite excursions, after hours activities

BACKGROUND AND LEGISLATION

BACKGROUND

Highvale Preschool's website is maintained to inform families about the services provided by the preschool. Highvale Preschool respects the privacy of staff, children and families.

Highvale Preschool develops guidelines with staff in regard to social media participation connected with their work as early childhood educators.

Social media such as Twitter, Facebook, Google+, YouTube, Snapchat, Instagram and blogging represent a growing form of communication, and can play an important role in maintaining relationships with families, educators and the local community in today's climate.

However, it is also an area in which rules and boundaries are constantly being tested and we must be mindful of the effects of the use of social media on children and families within our preschool community, particularly in relation to privacy and confidentiality.

LEGISLATION AND STANDARDS

Relevant legislation and standards include but are not limited to:

- Working with Children Act 2005 (Vic)
- Working with Children Regulations 2006 (Vic)
- Child Safe Standards 2016
- Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010
- Education and Care Services National Regulations 2011

Guidelines for Employees

To avoid possible professional conflicts of interest and or blurred lines of responsibility Highvale Preschool as the employer requests that employees decline any request from families to become a Facebook (or the like) friend whilst that family has a child/ren enrolled at Highvale Preschool. The exception to this is any 'friends' that were already 'friends' prior to the family's child starting at Highvale Preschool.

In addition to the above paragraph, Highvale Preschool requests that employees observe the following guidelines if at any time it is necessary to refer to their place of employment, its programmes or activities, its families and children, and/or other employees, in a blog or on a website:

- Employees must be respectful in all communications and blogs related to or referencing Highvale Preschool, its families and children and/or other employees.
- Employees must not use obscenities, profanity or vulgar language
- Employees must not use blogs or personal websites to disparage Highvale Preschool, families and children or other employees.
- Employees must not use blogs or personal websites to harass, bully or intimidate other employees, families or children. Behaviours that constitute harassment and bullying include, but are not limited to, comments that are derogatory with respect to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, colour or disability; sexually suggestive, humiliating or demeaning comments; and threats to stalk, haze or physically injure another employee or family or child.
- Employees must not post pictures/video of families or children or other employees on websites without prior consent
- Employees must not refer to names of children, families or colleagues in reference to comments on their place of work without prior consent

NB Any employee found to be in violation of any portion of this Privacy Online Policy could be subject to immediate disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Attachment 2:

GUIDELINES FOR FAMILIES of enrolled children

In general Highvale Preschool views social networking sites [MySpace, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube etc], personal Web sites and Weblogs positively and respects the right of families to use them as a medium of self- expression.

If a family member chooses to identify himself or herself as an associate of Highvale Preschool on such Internet venues, some readers of such sites or blogs may view the associate as a representative or spokesperson of Highvale Preschool.

Highvale Preschool requests that families observe the following guidelines when referring to Highvale Preschool, its programmes or activities, its families and children, and /or employees in a blog or on a website:

- Families are reminded that internet sites such as Facebook etc. are a public domain.
- Families are requested to be respectful in all communications and blogs related to or referencing Highvale Preschool, its activities, families and children and /or employees.
- Families are requested not to post pictures/video of families or children or employees of Highvale Preschool on a website without obtaining prior written permission
- Families are requested not to use obscenities, profanity or vulgar language in relation to Highvale Preschool, its activities or employees
- Families are requested not to use blogs or personal websites to harass, bully or intimidate Highvale Preschool employees or other families or children. Behaviours that constitute harassment and bullying include, but are not limited to, comments that are derogatory with respect to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, colour or disability; sexually suggestive, humiliating or demeaning comments and threats to stalk, haze or physically injure an employee or another family or child.

Procedure for failure to adhere to policy

Failure to adhere to the Social Media and Photography Policy could place families and children at risk. Highvale Preschool acknowledges that although this may rarely happen within our setting, we must for the safety of children and families have a procedure to follow should breaches of this policy

Steps to follow:

If someone is observed or reported for having breached this policy they should report the breach to the President via President@highvalekinder.org.au or to staff members.

The following procedure should then be followed:

1. Person/persons breaching policy will be approached by a Committee of Management member or staff member and reminded of the policy guidelines.
2. If posting has been on social media a request will be made for the immediate removal of the photograph/s
3. Within 48 hours of the breach, this policy and a copy of their signed Letter of Acknowledgement will be forwarded to family as a reminder of their obligations
4. A second breach of this policy will be followed by a written warning to family
5. Any further breaches will not be tolerated and appropriate action will be discussed by Committee of Management and family informed of the outcome
